ONE ARREST IS MADE AND PRISONER HELD.

Victim Was Knocked Down, but Regained Her Feet and Was Struggling Desperately When the Thugs Fled and Escaped.

Mrs. Katherine Dorney, wife of Rich and Dorney for twenty-seven years nanager of Daly's Theatre, is suffering at her home, on Morris Heights, from injuries inflicted by five men who viclously assaulted her as she was leavng Calvary Cemetery, where she had been to pay a visit to the grave of a coung daughter.

Andrew McGoldrick, twenty years old. den avenue, Long Island City, was arraigned before Magistrate Healey in the Long Island City Police Court to-day charged with felonious assault and committed to the Queens County Jail on an affidavit sworn to by Detective John Kennedy, who names him as the chief assailant of Mrs. Dorney.

The assault occurred on Friday evening. Just as Mrs. Dorney was leaving the cemetery five ruffians sprang from behind trees. Seizing her, they dragged her to the ground, choking and kicking her until she was nearly insensible.

Mrs. Dorney, however, who is a powerful woman of forty-five, fought desperately and managed to regain her feet. She was still struggling with her assailants when two or three man who had heard her screams came running to her rescue.

McGoldrick was the ringleader of the gang.

Mrs. Dorney, one of the best known of the older generation of theatrical men, and the late Augustin Daly's right-hand man, met his wife, then Miss Katherine Kelly, at the death bed of his stepdaughter in St. Vincent's Hospital, with which institution she was connected. He married her when she was a beautiful brunette of twenty-three.
